Go Cubs Go!

In June we took our FIRST trip to Wrigley Field to see the Cubs play! We took a limo their and back to avoid the traffic and had great seats! It ended in a Cubs win, which made Connor very happy! It ended up being a belated birthday gift for him, and it was well worth it. We can't wait to go to our next one next year!

Connor is a 4th Grader

Well, it finally happened, after 8 years at the primary and Elementary school, Connor started his last year their. He got lucky getting the same 4th grade teacher David did! He is doing amazing being challenged this year and is loving having a locker. He is doing amazing at Math and Language Arts and is excited for 5th grade.

David is a 7th Grader!

David started 7th grade and is definatly being challenged.

The school has moved in to trimesters so now he has a chance at specials three times a year. He had computer science in the first trimester and is currently doing art now.

David

Weight 89 lbs.

Connor:

Height: 48 inches

Weight: 65 lbs.

First Concert

David and Connor went to their first Concert this year. In August, the Smashing Pumpkins played at the United Center and we took the boys to go see them. We took another limo down their and it certainly didn't disappoint. It ended up being a three hour concert, with some of the boys favorite songs.

Mom and Dad's Update

Mom and Dad have had a very good year. Mom promoted to Director with 31, and loves being her own boss! We were able to go on a few fun weekends away one was to the Flashback weekend in August and the other was Days of the Dead in November. The boys spent the spring break holiday by Grandma's and we got a chance to enjoy no kids for the week. We can't wait to see what the new year holds!

David's Update

David has really flourished this year. He took a big interest in baseball and now can't wait for basketball to start. He is also becoming more interested in music and is really hoping for a guitar for Christmas. We got a drum set over the summer and the boys LOVE to play on the drums! It makes for a great break from electronics. He has started to love playing the guitar and drums, and can't wait to get his own guitar.

Connor's Update

Connor really excelled in football this year! He loved playing baseball and then had two weeks off before football camp started. He worked four days a week, two hours a day and it paid off getting his team to the playoffs! Even though they came in second place, it was still amazing to see how far he made it. He is excited now for basketball to start and still loves watching sports on TV. Like most kids he is also big into fortnite, and loves playing on Dad's account.

He also got a chance to spend a week away from home at Camp Duncan for summer camp. He loved it and can't wait to go next year!
